Lancashire children who, finding a criminal hiding out in their barn, come to believe that he's Jesus Christ. Winner of the 1987 Oscar for Best Foreign Language Film (and Pope Francis's favourite film!), Babette's Feast is set in a remote 19th Danish century village and takes in a dinner, hosted by French refugee Babette, for the two sisters who took her in. surprisingly tough emotional core and fantastic chemistry between Jennifer Grey as 'Baby' Frances Houseman and the late Patrick Swayze as dance instructor Jonny, a man whose background is vastly different from her own. The perfect Valentine's night out for couples and singles!

BOLSHOI BABYLON (PG)

Tues 16th February

Dir: Nick Read, Mark Franchetti | UK | 2015 | 87 mins | Documentary

Founded in 1776, the Bolshoi Ballet is Russia's proudest symbol, but in 2013 garnered sensational headlines when its Artistic Director Sergei Filin was the victim of a shocking acid attack. The scandal showed the ruthless forces at work within the Ballet and by expansion, within Russia itself; and this fascinating documentary grants us extraordinary access behind the scenes.

Cast: Leonardo DiCaprio, Tom Hardy, Domhnall Gleeson, Will Poulter

Leonardo DiCaprio stars in Alejandro González Iñárritu's follow-up to his Oscar-winning Birdman (re-teaming him with cinematographer Emmanuel Lubezki) for one of the most anticipated films of the year. In 1892 during an expedition of the uncharted American wilderness, explorer Hugh Glass (DiCaprio) is brutally attacked by a bear and left for dead by members of his own hunting team. Enduring unimaginable griefs as well as the betrayal of his confidant, he's motivated only by sheer will and the love of his family to navigate a vicious winter in a relentless quest to survive.

TEATIME CLASSICS: THE APARTMENT (PG)

Sat 20th February

Dir: Billy Wilder | USA | 1960 | 156 mins
Cast: Jack Lemmon, Shirley Maclaine, Fred MacMurray

Billy Wilder's 1960 classic, a gloriously witty romantic farce, is a delight. Jack Lemmon (Some Like it Hot) stars as Bud Baxter, a lonely office drudge who lends his Upper West Side apartment out to his bosses to use for their extramarital affairs; but finds matters complicated when his boss starts using it to see the girl he likes (Shirley Maclaine).

THE BIG SHORT (15)*

Sun 21st to Tues 23rd February

Dir: Adam McKay | USA | 2015 | 130 mins
Cast: Steve Carell, Brad Pitt, Ryan Gosling, Christian Bale, Marisa Tomei

It's 2005, and the housing market is booming. But four outsiders see what no one else can: the whole thing is a time bomb. 'The Big Short' is their story.

People were buying houses they couldn't afford, with money they didn't have, which they borrowed from banks that were negligent and greedy. Four men realised a crash was coming, and bet against the American economy to take on the banks. And make themselves rich as well, of course.

SLEAFORD MODS: INVISIBLE BRITAIN (15)

Weds 24th February

Dir: Nathan Hannawin, Paul Sng | UK | 2015 | 86 mins
Cast: Jason Williamson, Andrew Fearn, Jimmy McGovern

Sleaford Mods: Invisible Britain shows the most exciting and uncompromising British band in years articulating the rage and desperation of those without a voice in austerity Britain. Following the band on a UK tour before the 2015 election, it's part band doc, part state of the nation study, exploring communities attempting to foster hope among the ruins, against the band's blistering music.

"It's refreshing to see a rock documentary that so deliberately avoids the usual clichés" The Guardian

SPOTLIGHT (15)*

Fri 26th to Thurs 3rd March (Thurs Elevenses)

Dir: Tom McCarthy | USA | 2015 | 128 mins
Cast: Michael Keaton, Rachel McAdams, Mark Ruffalo, Brian d'Arcy Jones

Tom McCarthy's returns to past form with Spotlight. McCarthy is known for his care and attention to the cruelties that are befall ordinary people in films like The Station Agent and The Visitor. Despite the absolutely stunning cast (easier to ask which top American talent is not involved), the film eschews glitzy mechanics and flashy performances, instead respecting the harrowing real life situation that it depicts.

Sat 27th & Sun 28th February

Dir: J. J. Abrams | USA | 2015 | 135 mins

Abrams – is set 30 years after the Battle of Endor and the events portrayed in Return of the Jedi, and will plunge us into the further adventures of Luke Skywalker (Mark Hamill), Han Solo (Harrison Ford) and Princess Leia (Carrie Fisher). New cast members feeling the force include Gwendoline Christie, Adam Driver and Oscar Isaac as well as newcomers John Boyega and Daisy Ridley.

SURREAL REELS: BRAZIL (15)

Sat 27th February

Dir: Terry Gilliam | UK | 1985 | 137 mins
Cast: Jonathan Pryce, Robert De Niro, Kim Greist, Bob Hoskins, Ian Holm

Terry Gilliam's (12 Monkeys) audacious, dystopian black comedy is an all-time classic. Set in an alternate reality, low-level bureaucrat Sam Lowry (Jonathan Pryce) escapes the monotony of his life through a recurring romantic daydream. Investigating a mysterious case, he meets the woman from his daydream (Kim Greist) but gets caught in a web of mistaken identities, mindless bureaucracy and lies.

LEE SCRATCH PERRY'S VISION OF PARADISE (TBC)

Sun 28th February & Thurs 3rd March

Dir: Volker Schaner | Germany | 2015 | 100 mins | Documentary

Ahead of Lee Scratch Perry's 80th birthday tour at The Trades Club on Monday 14th March is a superb, inspiring and involving portrait of one of the most radical and brilliant figures in contemporary music, Lee Scratch Perry's Vision of Paradise. Shooting over 15 years, director Volker Schaner had unprecedented access to the man who can lay claim to be a godfather of both reggae and dub to tell a story that has never yet been told. Funny, poetic and frequently mind-blowing.
