WHAT'S ON 27 SEP - 10 OCT

THE CRITIC (15)

The Critic is a deliciously dark and sharp-witted thriller set in 1930s London featuring an all-star British cast.

When the most feared and vicious theatre critic in town Jimmy Erskine (Ian McKellen) finds himself suddenly in the cross hairs of the Daily Chronicle's new owner David Brooke (Mark Strong), he strikes a sinister Faustian pact with struggling actress Nina Land (Gemma Arterton) who is desperate to win his favour.

INSIDE OUT 2 (U) - £2 ENTRY FOR ALL

Disney and Pixar's Inside Out 2 returns to the mind of the newly teenage Riley just as headquarters is undergoing a sudden demolition to make room for something entirely unexpected: new Emotions! Joy, Sadness, Anger, Fear and Disgust, who've long been running a successful operation by all accounts, aren't sure how to feel when Anxiety shows up. And it looks like she's not alone.

Tickets for the Junior Show are only £2 PLUS Picture House Members can watch for FREE!

BLACK DOG (12A) Mandarin with English Subtitles

On the edge of the Gobi Desert in Northwest China, Lang returns to his hometown after being released from jail. While working for the local stray dog patrol team, clearing the town before the 2008 Olympic Games, he strikes up an unlikely connection with a black dog. These two lonely souls now embark on a new journey together.

Black Dog had its global premiere at Cannes Film Festival 2024 winning the Un Certain Regard Award, and the lead canine, Xiao Xin, a Jack Russell-Greyhound cross, winning the Grand Jury Prize of the Palm Dog Award. It has since had its UK premiere at Edinburgh International Film Festival.

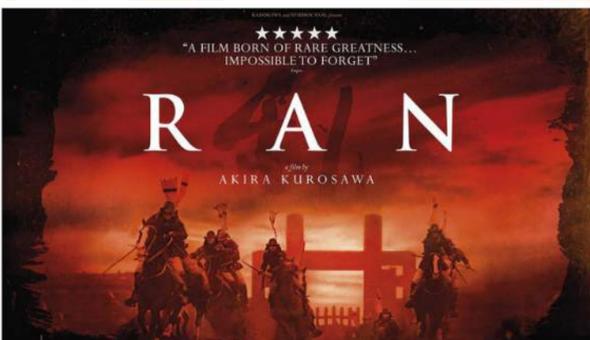

FRIGHT NIGHT: SHAUN OF THE DEAD (15)

We're coming to get you Barbara! When flesh-eating zombies are on the hunt for a bite to eat, it's up to slacker Shaun (Simon Pegg) and his best pal (Nick Frost) to save their friends and family from becoming the next entrée.

Shaun of the Dead first graced cinema screens in 2004, quickly becoming a cultural phenomenon and solidifying its place in the annals of horror-comedy history. Directed by Edgar Wright and starring Simon Pegg and Nick Frost, the film has since amassed a dedicated following who have eagerly awaited its return to the big screen.

FREE Cornetto with every ticket!

HEBDEN BRIDGE FILM CLUB PRESENTS:

RAN (12A) Japanese with English Subtitles

Drawing heavily on Shakespeare's King Lear and legends surrounding the 16th-century feudal lord Mōri Motonari, Kurosawa took inspiration from the success of Kagemusha to broaden his canvass. Like Throne of Blood, at its heart Ran is a tale of family strife. But in its execution, particularly the stunning exterior sequences and its use of colour - as audacious as Teinosuke Kinugasa's 1953 classic Gate of Hell - the film plays out on an epic scale- BFI.

THE OUTRUN (15)

After a decade away in London, 29-year-old Rona returns home to the Orkney Islands. Sober but lonely, she tries to suppress her memory of the events which set her on this journey of recovery. Slowly the mystical land enters her inner world and - one day at a time - Rona finds hope and strength in herself among the heavy gales and the bracingly cold sea.

We are delighted to welcome Co-writer (and author of the book the film is based on) Amy Liptrot for a live Q&A, on Saturday 5 October at 7pm. The Q&A will be hosted by Louise Wadley, Director of Hebden Bridge Film Festival.

DISNEY JUNIOR CINEMA CLUB (U) - £2 ENTRY

Audiences are invited to bring their little ones to enjoy the magic of Disney on the big screen, with a new fun-filled cinema experience featuring Mickey Mouse, Spidey and His Amazing Friends, Ariel, Bluey and more.

Whether it's their first time in the cinema, or they regularly enjoy the movies, it's one not to miss! Disney Junior Cinema Club 2024 brings together songs, interactive games, and episodes for all. We also have an Autism Friendly screening on Sunday 6 October at 1pm (prompt start) - £2 entry.

MY FAVOURITE CAKE (12A) Iranian with English Subs

The film follows 70-year-old Mahin (Lily Farhadpour), who has been living alone in Tehran for decades since her husband died and her daughter left for Europe. One afternoon, tea with friends leads her to reassess her life and choices; she decides to break her solitary routine and revitalise her love life. On a chance outing, where she witnesses an encounter between a woman and the morality police and decides to intervene, she comes across a lonely taxi driver called Esmail (Esmail Mehrabi). A newfound determination and confidence propels her to approach him, and she invites him over to her house in a bid for connection. What follows is an unpredictable, unforgettable evening.
