WHAT'S ON 28 FEB - 13 MAR

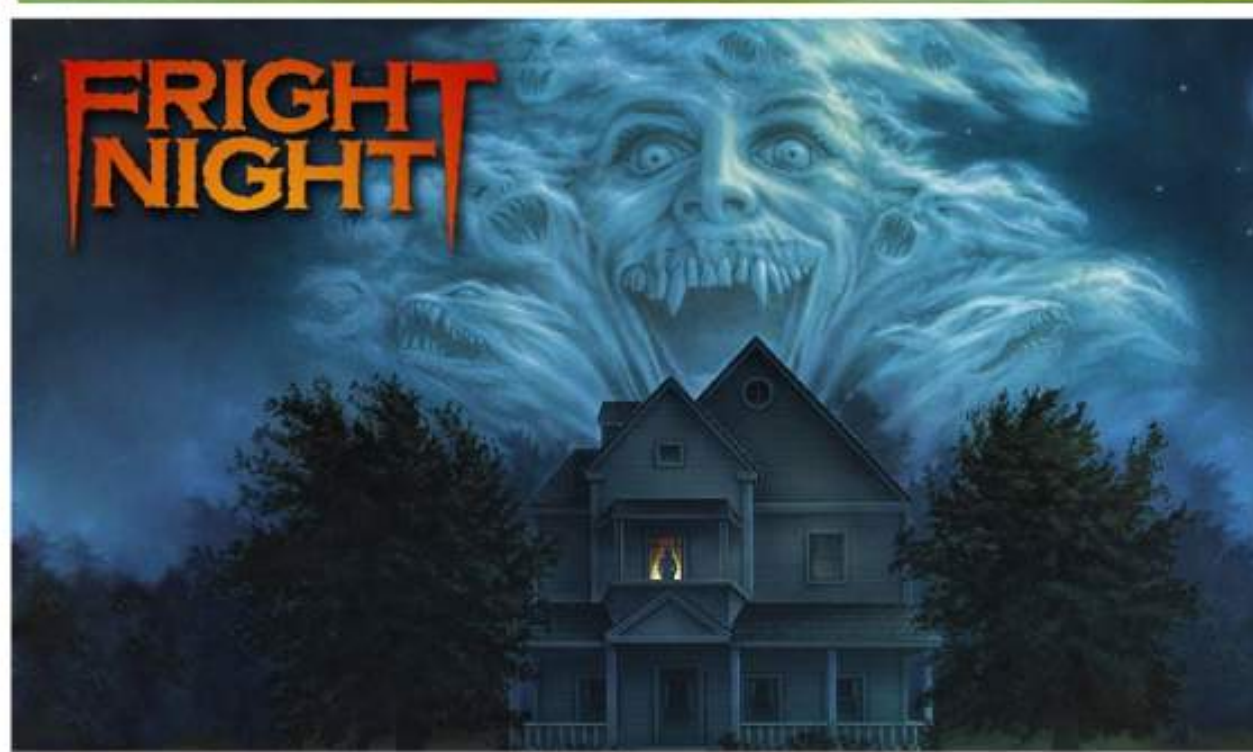

BRIDGET JONES: MAD ABOUT THE BOY (15)

Bridget Jones navigates life as a widow and single mum with the help of her family, friends, and former lover, Daniel. Back to work and on the apps, she's pursued by a younger man and maybe - just maybe - her son's science teacher. With an all-star cast including Renée Zellweger, Chiwetel Ejiofor, Leo Woodall, Hugh Grant, Colin Firth, Emma Thompson, Isla Fisher, Nico Parker, Josette Simon and Leila Farzad. We're also screening a Parent and Baby show on Tuesday 11 March at 11am - visit hbph.co.uk for info.

THE BOY AND THE HERON (12A)

Young Mahito lives with his parents in 1940s Tokyo. When tragedy strikes, he travels with his father to the countryside, where he struggles to fit in. He's also pestered by a strange heron. The revelation that the bird has the ability to speak sets Mahito off on an adventure, travelling to a magical world - a place that allows him to confront his emotions. Hayao Miyazaki's return to feature filmmaking is a vibrant, colourful and moving masterpiece and deserved winner of Best Animation at last year's Oscars.

FRIGHT NIGHT PRESENTS FRIGHT NIGHT (18)

You might think that Jerry Dandrige is the perfect neighbour. But before you invite him in for a nightcap, there's a few things you need to know - he prefers his drinks warm, red and straight from the jugular. Only 17-year-old Charlie Brewster knows Jerry's bloodcurdling secret and when he can't get anybody to believe him, TV horror show host Peter Vincent becomes his only ally against the powerful bloodsucker. If you love being scared, it'll be the night of your life!

I AM MARTIN PARR (12A)

One of the most controversial photographers of his time, Martin Parr's images often have the power to both amuse and leave us ever so slightly uncomfortable, caught between laughter and the uneasy recognition of ourselves in his uncompromising portrait of consumer society. Discover the maverick behind some of the most iconic images of the past century on an intimate and exclusive road trip across England with the uncompromising Parr, whose subjects, frames and colours have revolutionised contemporary photography.

BANFF MOUNTAIN FILM FESTIVAL (12A) - BLUE PROGRAMME

The Banff Mountain Film Festival (Blue Film Programme) features a thrilling selection of films from the most captivating places on earth!

The festival is back with a brand-new line-up of captivating short films packed with extreme journeys, intriguing characters and stunning cinematography. Join the world's top outdoor filmmakers and adventurers as they climb, ski, paddle, run and ride through the wildest corners of the planet!

I'M STILL HERE (15)

A triumphant return from BAFTA winning director Walter Salles (Motorcycle Diaries, Central Station) starring Brazilian acting royalty tipped for Oscar contention, Fernanda Torres. The film had gala screenings at Venice, Toronto and London Film Festivals to rapturous receptions. Brazil, 1971 - a country in the tightening grip of a military dictatorship. A mother is forced to reinvent herself when her family's life is shattered by an act of arbitrary violence.

MOANA 2 (PG) - £2 TICKETS FOR ALL

Walt Disney Animation Studios' epic animated musical "Moana 2" takes audiences on an expansive new voyage with Moana, Maui and a brand-new crew of unlikely seafarers. After receiving an unexpected call from her wayfinding ancestors, Moana must journey to the far seas of Oceania and into dangerous, long-lost waters for an adventure unlike anything she's ever faced. Plus, Members Go Free!

SEPTEMBER 5 (15)

Set during the 1972 Munich Summer Olympics, the film follows an American Sports broadcasting team that quickly adapted from sports reporting to live coverage of the Israeli athletes taken hostage. At the heart of the story is Geoff, a young and ambitious producer striving to prove himself to his boss, the legendary TV executive Roone Arledge. Together with German interpreter Marianne and his mentor Marvin Bader, Geoff unexpectedly takes the helm of the live coverage. As narratives shift, time ticks away, and conflicting rumours spread, with the hostages' lives hanging in the balance, Geoff grapples with tough decisions while confronting his own moral compass

HEBDEN BRIDGE FILM CLUB SCREENING TBC

The Hebden Bridge Film Club (HBFC) is an informal group of Picture House attendees. We stay in touch via Facebook and/or WhatsApp groups and there's an email list. Once a year we nominate films for the monthly HBFC Presents Screening draw. Are you new to the area or simply want to meet new people? All are welcome, particularly those who are alone and want to connect with like-minded people. To join Hebden Bridge Film Club visit: www.facebook.com/groups/hebdenbridgefilmclub.
